

Miracle Working Icon of Saint Anna to visit Chicago's Christ the Savior Parish May 2-4

 Originally enshrined in the Russian Orthodox Church of Our Lady, the Joy of All Who Sorrow in Philadelphia, the Icon of Saint Anna began to stream myrrh on May 9, 2004.

The Icon currently is enshrined at St. Tikhon's Monastery, South Canaan, Pennsylvania, and has become widely known in aiding in the healing of individuals suffering from cancer.

While the icon has not wept for over five years, it continues to exude a heavenly sweet fragrance as a testimony to its miraculous quality. Many miracles and graces continue to come from the Icon to help and console all those who seek Saint Anna's intercession.

The icon will be accompanied by Igumen Sergius, Abbot of St. Tikhon's Monastery.

JOIN US!

Friday, May 2

6:30 p.m. Akathistos Hymn to Saint Anna, followed by a short presentation by Father Sergius, "Saints in Big Cities"

Saturday, May 3

9:30 a.m. Divine Liturgy followed by a light breakfast

11:30 a.m. First Talk: "10 Minute Spirituality"

1:00 p.m. Break for lunch

2:00 p.m. Second Talk: "Finding Salvation in a Modern World"

4:00 p.m. Vigil

Sunday, May 6

9:30 a.m. Divine Liturgy with Father Sergius preaching

Christ the Savior Orthodox Church

927 North LaSalle, Chicago, Illinois