

The 10th Annual St. Alexis (Toth) Lecture

Sunday, May 12, 2019 7 p.m.

A Presentation by Bohdan Horbal, Ph.D.
with festive reception.

A History and Highlights of Orthodox and Rusyn Resources in the Slavic and East European Collections at the New York Public Library

Lemko Folk and Religious music on main stream American labels, 1928-1930

Dr. Bohdan Horbal is the curator for the Slavic and East European Collections at the New York Public Library, having been appointed to the position in October 2018.

With a Ph.D. in history from the University of Wrocław, Poland and a Master of Library Science from Queens College, Dr. Horbal's research interests include the evolution of Rusyn culture, in particular, Lemkos, in both Europe and North America.

St. Mary's

Orthodox Cathedral ✠ 1701 5th Street N.E., Minneapolis, MN 55413 ♦ www.stmarysoca.org ♦ 612-781-7667 ♦ info@stmarysoca.org