

Foundations of Servant Leadership

and

Creating Effective Ministry Teams

Pan-Orthodox Servant Leadership Retreat & Luncheon

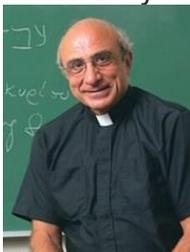

Saturday, February 29, 8:30-5:00

St. Mary's Cathedral

Foundations of Servant Leadership and Creating Effective Ministry Teams offer key principles and tools to clergy and laity, so that, in working together, the local church body may be more equipped to thrive in the community it serves. You should attend the full-day retreat if you are interested in serving the ministry of your parish. Each session offers engaging material to prepare for the intensive workshop. Small groups formed at this conference are invited to engage post-module exercises, supported by program facilitators, to implement the concepts, behaviors, and practices for a healthier local church body. Whether you actively serve in a leadership role, or you are an emerging leader, please register to come! See OrthodoxServantLeaders.com for more information.

Presentations By:

VRev. Dr. Paul Nadim
Tarazi, Prof Emeritus,
St. Vladimir's
Seminary

VRev. Dr. Sergius
Halvorsen, Dir DMin,
St. Vladimir's
Seminary

Alex Langley,
Software Delivery
Manager, US Bank

Joe Kormos, Parish
Development
Ministry, Archdiocese
Western PA, OCA

