SATURDAY • OCTOBER 28 • 10:00AM

PRESENTATION BY:
SISTER VASSA LARIN

“PRAYING IN TIME”

HOLY RESURRECTION ORTHODOX CHURCH, 1449 N. QUENTIN RD., PALATINE, IL

Holy Resurrection Orthodox Church is proud to welcome Sister Vassa Larin.

Sister Vassa is a Russian Orthodox liturgiologist. She is author of many scholarly articles, a monograph on Byzantine liturgy, and of “Reflections with Morning Coffee,” inspirational commentaries on Scripture and Liturgy.

Sister Vassa’s online-mission includes a daily Newsletter, weekday audio-podcasts called “Morning Coffee”, an ongoing video-course on Divine Liturgy, and over 300 YouTube videos on Orthodox Theology and Tradition.

From 2009 thru 2017 Sister Vassa taught Liturgical Studies at the Catholic Faculty of the University of Vienna in Austria. She currently lives in Vienna where she writes, speaks and teaches throughout Europe and the US. She is coming to the USA on a book tour to present her recent publication, “Praying in Time”.

Sister Vassa is an excellent teacher and makes her material accessible to all. We are very privileged to have her come speak at our Parish.

Daily reflections by Sister Vassa are available by email or through her Facebook page. You can register at coffeewithsistervassa.com

Register for this event on Holy Resurrection Orthodox Church, Palatine, IL Facebook page.

There will be a collection for Sister Vassa’s ministry. Her newest book, “Praying in Time”, will be available for a special price of $17.
